MY STAY IN NORWAY

What did I like the most...
Everything was so expensive, I couldn´t afford anything. But I had a lot of fun.

The most interesting was...
Drammen, Guys we have met. Opera in Oslo.

The biggest difference was/is...
People don´t do anything interesting, they can all speak English and they will always help you, no more nor less.

The biggest surprise was…
When we have met a guy named Simon and he was like „hello lets hang out somewhere,“ and we were like no.

We were writing essays and then went to Norway. I like it there. You get there everything, it is like American dream or even better.

People in Norway are usually very nice, but a little reserved/shy. It can take longer to make friends, but it shouldn't be a big problem if you're in school and are living with a host family.

Breakfast can be cereal, oatmeal, open sandwiches (one slice of bread), etc. Some people have sandwiches for lunch too. Dinner is usually simple meals like a pasta dish, meat/fish with potatoes, casseroles, etc.

The average climate really depends on where in the country you'll be. Up north, it's obviously a lot colder (and stays that way a lot longer) than down south.

What I liked there: money, nature, trees, grass, guys, water, sun, long days, rainy days, love, heat, girls, school, Drammen, weather, clothes and shops.
